GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Cheering News from New York.

New York, Aug. 16.—The Times publishes letters received from thirty-four of the fifty-nine counties of New York outside of this city, and King's which give a fair and unprejudiced showing of the political situation. In all these the republican party is united, and nowhere is there talk of scratching; and from all comes the prediction that Garfield and Arthur will receive a much more solid support and larger majorities than did Hayes and Wheeler in 1876.

A Sudden Change.

New York, Aug. 16.—There was frost in the river counties last night. At Stamford, Delaware county, ice formed. Temperature there at 6 A. M., 62°.

Sullivan, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Tender vegetation was killed by frost last night. Growing crops of corn and buckwheat are somewhat injured.

Chinese Dead in a New York Cemetery.

New York, Aug. 16.—During an interview with the foreman of the Evergreen Cemetery yesterday, he said that there are fifty Chinese bodies lying in these grounds and only four have been taken away. That settles the story that no Mongol will leave his bones in ...

Flight of a Disgusted Politician.

Political circles are much excited at the disappearance of Jno. Fox, an ex-senator, who is believed to have sailed for Europe, whither his wife and family went some time ago. He left suddenly, and probably sailed under an assumed name. He was intensely disgusted with the turn in political affairs, and especially at the possibility of a compromise by the democratic party with Tammany. His own counsels in his party were ... and his influence was decreasing, and it is supposed that he has gone away to recover his equilibrium.

Immigration—Births and Deaths at New York.

New York, Aug. 16.—During last week, ... immigrants arrived.

Deaths last week, 697; births, 615.

Maud S and St. Julien to Trot on Thursday.

Springfield, Mass., Aug. 16.—It is officially announced to-day that Maud S and St. Julien will certainly trot here Thursday, the former for a special purse of $3000 against her record of 2:11½. Both horses are already here.

Death in a Watermelon.

... Tex., Aug. 16.—Six men, while partaking of a watermelon in Falls county, suddenly died. It is supposed that Paris green used to kill insects was the cause.

Lost at Sea.

New York, Aug. 16.—Jas. Morris, seaman on the ship Geo. McClellan, which arrived here to-day from San Francisco, fell overboard on the voyage and was lost.

Republican Tribulation in Connecticut.

Boston, Aug. 16.—The Times' editorial says: Since the Connecticut republicans entered the bloody chasm between Hartford and New Haven by nominating a man from each place for governor and one from the other for lieutenant governor, democrats have been ... They meet in convention Wednesday, and a big row is anticipated. Unless they are fortunate enough to effect a happy compromise between the two towns as their competitors did, one or the other of them will probably go sl... against them.

MEETING OF MASONS.

Triennial Conclave of Knights Templar of the U. S. at Chicago.

Two Hundred Thousand Strangers in the City.

Welcome by the Governor, Mayor and other Officials—Brilliant Decorations and Animating Scenes, Etc.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Commanderies of knights were arriving all day yesterday. Among those now here are Wyoming No. 1, of Colorado; Wyoming No. 1, of Cheyenne; also full delegations from California, Nevada and Oregon, and partial representations from Alabama, New York, Ohio, Utah, New Jersey, Tennessee and Maryland. By to-night the entire list of commanderies, numbering 280, will be here. Late trains have delayed many. The day will be taken up in receiving the commanderies as they arrive and settling them in their quarters, by speeches and becoming addresses from the mayor, governor and representatives of the grand master. The weather is rather cool for camping, but pleasant and dry. Several commanderies were serenaded last night by the Apollo quartette. The aid of the police was required to-day to resist the encroachments of the crowd on the camp ground and tents. The city is already full of strangers.

Eastern Masons Bound for Chicago.

Buffalo, Aug. 16.—Fifteen separate commanderies of Knights Templars, passed through this city to-day en route to the conclave at Chicago.

The Pacific Coast Delegations.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Much interest is manifested in California and other Pacific coast delegations of Knights Templar, and their quarters in Camp De Molai are continually thronged with visitors. They are somewhat worn by their long journey, but are in fine trim. Their necessary expense for the trip will exceed fifty thousand dollars, which is divided among 142 knights making an average of $300 each; but their actual expenses will be much greater, as 99 ladies and 18 misses and children accompany them.

Stories were circulated yesterday that a theft had been made of regalias to a large amount from the tents of the Californians. The amount was exaggerated, but some regalias were stolen, and in consequence Gen. Torrance of the 1st brigade of state national guards has furnished a volunteer force to protect the Knights and their property from thieves who are present in force proportionate to the large crowd. Among bits of enterprise is a reception daily by two local commanderies of a car load of California fruits to be dispensed to visiting Knights.

The First Day.

The first day of the triennial conclave of the Knight Templar of the United States opened bright and cool, with every prospect of pleasant weather throughout. Trains, with excursion parties, are arriving at depots every hour, every train being crowded to its utmost capacity with Knights and other visitors. The streets present a scene of unusual animation, especially along the line of march, where ornamentation is most profuse, and in the vicinity of the lake front, where tents are pitched and arches erected. The crush has been continuous since yesterday morning, except for a few hours after midnight. The throng is almost impenetrable at times, and the enthusiasm is increased with every fresh arrival of a commandery. The various depots are supplied with escorts for all incoming Knights, who are shown at once to their quarters. All trains arrive late, on account of the numerous special and excursion trains that are running. A brilliant display, made by isolated bands of Knights, who occasionally march through the streets, is but a small indication of what the significant body will be when marshaled together on Tuesday, and the subsequent drill. Yesterday 3000 people came into camp, but owing to the failure of most of them to announce their arrival, some inconvenience was experienced. The influx of thieves, pickpockets and burglars is very large, and they began operations yesterday by capturing some uniforms from the tents. The police have been instructed to arrest all known bad characters or even suspicious ones, and lock them up during the conclave. Over 100 newspaper reporters have arrived, representing the principal papers in the country. There has been no general musical rehearsal, the various bands being, for the most part, late in arriving; but the streets are well supplied with musicians, whose appearance always attracts the crowd and elicits hearty applause.

Afternoon and evening trains brought in an immense number of visitors, and it is estimated that something over 200,000 strangers will be on the street to-morrow. Hotels are taxed to their utmost, and nearly every private residence has its guest.

There is great pressure for tickets to different entertainments. The ball Tuesday evening is the most notable event, and in magnitude it will probably exceed any similar event in the history of the country. The exposition building is beautifully arranged for the grand affair, and no pains will be spared to make it in every way successful. On the lake shore the sight is as picturesque as it is unusual. From the exposition building south to Park row, a distance of a mile, the ground is completely covered with tents of regular army pattern. Facing in a warlike array on the left are the beautiful residences of Michigan avenue, many of which are handsomely decorated, while the camp looks eastward upon Lake Michigan, the many trains of cars which pass to and fro on the lake front along shutting out the lake from sight. Continuous lines of carriages and thousands of pedestrians pass in front of the encampment, dividing their attention between the military show and the displays of bunting and Masonic emblems which everywhere predominate. To-night there are entertainments at three halls and receptions at each of them. At Central Music hall, Mayor Harrison in behalf of Chicago and Governor Cullom in behalf of the state welcomed the knights. M. W. Theo Gue ney, grand master of Illinois, extended welcome in behalf of the craft of the state, and appropriate acknowledgments were returned. At McCormick's hall, Lieutenant Governor Shuman extended a welcome and other speeches were made. At Farwell hall, addresses were made by Jno. Wentworth for the mayor, and by Leonard Swett for the governor. Joseph Robbins, Sir Lester Bond and others returned acknowledgments.

GRANT AT DENVER.

An Enthusiastic Reception—He Thinks that Garfield will Carry New York.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Denver, Aug. 16.—A committee of prominent citizens, headed by Gov. Pitkin, left Denver for Manitou by special train this morning, where they met Gen. Grant and escorted him to Denver. The party arrived at the depot at 4:45 P. M. Upon arrival of the train a salute was fired by the Chaffee Light Artillery, after which a procession was formed of military and civic organizations, and proceeded through the principal streets to the hotel. General Grant was mounted on a gray horse. Houses along the line of march were gaily decorated and every available spot was a point of observation for people. All along the line the general was welcomed with hearty cheers. Upon arriving at the hotel, the general dismounted and entered the building, but in response to calls from the crowd, soon appeared upon the balcony and bowed pleasantly. The general then turned to retreat when the crowd clamored for a speech, whereupon he smiled and said: "Comrades, I thank you, but all I wish to say is to introduce to you Gov. Routt, whom I know to be very fond of talking to a large crowd." Gov. Routt said but a few words and then retired. A reception was held at the Glenarm hotel to-night. To-morrow night there will be a banquet in the general's honor. Gen. Grant stated to a knot of distinguished listeners at Manitou yesterday that in his opinion Gen. Garfield would carry New York easily.

FIRES.

Derby Line, Vt., Aug. 16.—The freight sheds with contents and 16 loaded cars of the Grand Trunk railroad, burned at Richmond, province of Quebec. Loss $75,000; insured.

Fire at Ogdensburg.

Ogdensburg, Aug. 15.—The round house of the Ogdensburg and Lake Champlain railway, containing five locomotives, burned to-day. Loss, $100,000; insurance, unknown.

CANADA.

Father Son and Daughter Drowned.

Toronto, Aug. 16.—Robert Wilkes, a wholesale jeweler of this city, his daughter Florence, age 15, and son Bertie, age 11, were drowned at Sturgeon point to-day. Florence and Bertie were bathing and the boy getting out of his depth the father, who was in a boat, jumped out to save him. The daughter also went to the rescue and all were drowned.

The Trouble in Buenos Ayres.

London, Aug. 16.—Dispatches from Buenos Ayres, say that the political crisis has become more serious. The national congress refuses to accept the resignation of President Allivands, on insists upon the overthrow of the provincial chambers. The president, however, adheres to his resignation. The garrison of Buenos Ayres has been reinforced.

Slavery or Extinction.

(From the Meridian, Miss., Mercury, July 31.)

We would like to engrave a prophecy on stone to be read of generations in the future. The negroes in these states will be slaves again or cease to be. His sole refuge from extinction will be in slavery to the white man.

Constitutional Always.

(From the Chicago Tribune.)

It was like Hancock to write a letter in defense of the constitution. No Democrat ever walloped a slave except in a constitutional manner.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Irishmen Protesting.

London, Aug. 16.—A number of meetings were held in Ireland on Sunday to protest against the rejection of the compensation for disturbance bill. Very violent language the landlords was used by speakers.

Death of a Diplomatist.

London, Aug. 15.—Lord Stratford Deredcliffe, Sir S. Canning, many years ambassador to the porte, is dead.

Loud Talk.

Dublin, Aug. 16.—John Dillon, M. P. for Tipperary, speaking at a land meeting at Kildare, said that as soon as the land league had 300,000 men enrolled, they would be able to strike against the rest if their demands were not granted. All the arms in England would not be able to levy rent in Ireland. They would have a coercion act and they could go out at any hour of the night they pleased and carry rifles with them.

Fight in Ireland.

Dublin, Aug. 16.—In a faction fight yesterday at Port Adown, county Armagh, between ribbon men and Orangemen, many persons were badly wounded. The ribbon men were routed.

Disastrous Flood.

London, Aug. 16.—A flood swept down the glen of Glendore, county Donegal, yesterday, flooding the church at Camieron, and drowning several persons who were carried away by the rush of waters. Two bodies have been recovered.

Riot in Glasgow.

Glasgow, Aug. 16.—Serious rioting took place at the home rule demonstration Saturday, owing to the home rulers passing an orange lodge. Seventy police who endeavored to restore order were overpowered. Two policemen were injured so badly that they are not expected to recover. One was stabbed by a spear. Twenty persons were arrested.

Personal.

London, Aug. 16.—Gladstone has gone to Helmburg, pursuant to a recent announcement, to remain some days.

The Stolen Jewels.

London, Aug. 15.—The value of plate and jewelry stolen from Eldon's residence, near Wortham is £20,000 sterling.

As Seen by a Russian Authority.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 16.—The Agence Russe says: It would show want of knowledge of Afghan character to regard Ayoob Khan and Abdurrahman Khan as other than irreconcilable rivals. The Agence categorically denies that Russia is concentrating 45,000 troops near the border.

Afghanistan.

London, Aug. 16.—A dispatch from Jogdalak, dated the 15th, says that General Stewart's force has reached Schbabs, in the Gollsea country. The ameer will enter Bala Hessa in state to-day. Cabul is quiet.

Candahar, Aug. 15.—The irregulars occupy neighboring villages. Ayoob Khan has brought a few guns to bear on the city, but they are too far away to do much damage. About 8000 Afghans have been expelled from the city. The garrison is well provisioned, except with fresh meat. Rumors of General Roberts' advance have reached Candahar.

London, Aug. 15.—The military correspondent of the Times, says that it seems possible that Gen. Phayre will not relieve Candahar, as owing to deficiency in transportation facilities he will not be able to advance before the end of August or ten days later than the original date fixed upon. We have at last received a statement of losses to the British by the battle of the 27th of July, which positively places the number of casualties at 21 officers, 300 Europeans and 700 natives, killed or missing, and five officers and 90 men wounded. Gen. Stewart's force will reach Gondamuk to-morrow, where it will make a short halt, then march to Peshawur.

London, Aug. 16.—In the house of commons the secretary of state for India stated that a letter had reached Chaman Choki from Khelat Ghilza, dated 12th inst., saying that the country is quiet and fort abundantly supplied and able to assist in supplying Gen. Roberts.

A dispatch from Quettah to-day, says that a large number of tribesmen attacked our troops at Ketch las night. The garrison of 300 of the 16th Bombay native infantry, behaved with great steadiness. The enemy were repulsed and left 80 dead. The garrison pursued the enemy for some distance.

Candahar, Aug. 16.—Colonel St. John has written a letter to Ayoob Khan asking whether the report is true that he holds some British officers captured at Kushki Nakhud.

Ayoob Khan's Movements.

Quetta, Aug. 16.—Native reports are so unanimous as to the presence of three European officers with Ayoob Khan that there can be but little doubt that they are true.

Candahar, Aug. 16.—Defences are complete. Ayoob Khan is three miles from the city. He has 37 guns and 2000 cavalry. It is said that the Heratis have deserted Ayoob, owing to dissensions among them.

Reinforcements for India.

Portsmouth, Aug. 15.—A troop ship, with 850 reinforcements for India, sailed to-day.

Committed for Trial.

Calcutta, Aug. 16.—The man who fired at Lord Lytton in December, and was then declared insane, has recovered and been committed for trial.

Another Move.

Athens, Aug. 16.—France, having declined to draw up a note in answer to the porte's objections, England telegraphed a circular to all the powers on Friday, proposing a new joint note entirely rejecting the last suggestion of the porte and insisting upon the fulfillment of the original mandate.

Greece and Servia.

Athens, Aug. 16.—A statement that Greece has made an advance to Servia with a view to a conclusion of an offensive and defensive alliance, is denied.

Cathedral Completed.

Berlin, Aug. 13.—The cathedral at Cologne is completed.

Death of Marshal Bazaine.

Le Voltaire announces the death of Marshal Bazaine, and says that his body, escorted by three Spanish soldiers, passed through Limoges on the 12th inst.

Bazaine all Right.

Paris, Aug. 16.—Report of the death of Marshal Bazaine is unfounded.

Double Dignity.

Paris, Aug. 16.—Gen. Grevy has been elected senator from the department of Jura.

A Patriotic Utterance.

Paris, Aug. 16.—The Verite publishes a letter from M. Gambetta to a councillor general explaining his views in regard to the recent elections. He says the elections were profoundly republican and democratic. The democrats do not wish a republic in form only, but want to organize an institution in order that democracy may not longer be a lie and the republic a snare. It is by constant application of such methods at home that democracy will succeed in bringing into play its admirable resources, the treasures and hidden might of our great country, and that France will be permitted to resume without precipitance the advanced rank which belongs to her in the world, regain the provinces violently torn from her, and of her restored integrity to make a pledge for the peace of Europe.

A Possible Fraud.

Authenticity of the letter imputed to Gambetta, published in the Verite, is doubted.

An Old Letter Reprinted.

The Republique Francais announces that Gambetta's letter in the Verite yesterday was written on the 16th of October, 1871, when it appeared in all Paris papers, and was also published in pamphlet form. Nevertheless, a dispatch from Berlin says the letter has produced there a painful impression.

A Matter of Courtesy between Italy and France.

Paris, Aug. 16.—France publishes a telegram from Tunis announcing that the Italian consul there intends persisting in his representations to the bey with a view of preventing the completion of certain branch lines of the Bone Guelma railway, notwithstanding that a certain French consul has communicated with his government on the subject. The difficulty causes considerable excitement in Tunis.

A Young Engineer.

Paris, Aug. 16.—Mme. DeLesseps has presented her husband with a fine boy; mother doing well.

What's the Matter?

Rome, Aug. 16.—It is authoritatively stated that the Italian ambassadors at London and St. Petersburg have been summoned to Rome.

THE PACIFIC COAST.

CALIFORNIA.

A Fatal Fall.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—As the barkentine Melancthon was going out through the heads yesterday a sailor named Sullivan fell from the fore topsail yard to the deck and was instantly killed.

Death from a Rattlesnake Bite.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—A dispatch from Santa Paula, Ventura county, says that Rev. J. W. Anderson, who has held many offices of trust in the state, and a pioneer of this county, was bitten by a rattlesnake yesterday, from the effects of which he died last night.

Dividend.

Grand Prize declares a dividend of twenty-five cents.

MEXICO.

Revolutionary Troubles in Northern Mexico.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—A dispatch from Tucson, Arizona, says: Latest advices received from Sonora, supposed to be thoroughly reliable, says that Brigide Reyes, after taking Magdalena, attempted to enforce a loan which was resisted by several leading citizens. In the course of the controversy Reyes had a gentleman named Ruera, probably the judge, and a merchant of the name of Gallejo, shot; also another merchant whose name could not be ascertained. Many people are leaving Sonora and coming into Arizona.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

Large Coal Shipment.

New Tacoma, Aug. 15.—The City of Chester arrived at 6 o'clock this evening. She brings the largest freight list of general merchandise ever shipped to this port. She leaves about 10 o'clock this evening direct for Nanaimo to take a cargo of coal, 700 tons.

NEEDS ATTENTION.

Roseburg, Aug. 12, 1880.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

By publishing this short communication you will to some extent do a favor to the cause of common school education. In the case below mentioned the school board may perhaps to some extent be uninformed; and yet I can hardly conceive how such can be the case. To say the least about the matter there has been, as it appears to me, a neglect of duty. The case is as follows: In 1868 Jesse N. Barker obtained a loan from the then county treasurer of Douglas county of school money belonging to the fund known as the irreducible fund (what a misnomer!) to the amount of twelve hundred dollars, secured by mortgage on his ranch. Subsequently he was favored with a loan of three hundred and fifty dollars. The interest on the whole amount was paid up to the 1st day of January, 1876, but not one cent of interest has been paid since—now nearly four years and a half. I herewith enclose a copy of the law defining the duty of the board in such cases, page 52, sec. 27, which reads as follows:

> Page 52, Sec. 27. It shall be the duty of the board to foreclose immediately all mortgages which are not adequate security for the debt, or upon which there is more than one year's interest in arrears. And they may, in their discretion, bid in the land in the name of the state at its true cash value, or they may accept of release of the equity of redemption and take the land at its true cash value when necessary to secure the fund from loss, and all such purchases heretofore made are hereby confirmed. They shall keep a correct record of all such purchases, with a description of the land purchased and a statement of the fund to which they belong, and such lands shall be sold as other lands of the same class from which the fund arose are sold, and the proceeds placed to the credit of the irreducible fund from which the loan was made.

You can readily understand why from 1876 to September, 1878, steps were not taken to secure the foreclosure of the mortgage. The land mortgaged is not of good quality, consequently, will not sell for a large price. But if this board had foreclosed the mortgage and taken the land for the debt, if nothing better could be done, then as now the place could have been rented for the annual interest or nearly so, and the school fund would be annually increased to the amount of the ten per cent. on the whole debt, now some $2200 or over. How or why is it that the present board don't act in the matter is the question? B. is not the big brother-in-law of any one of the board. We ask action without further delay. Let there be prompt, faithful discharge of duty.

FRIEND OF COMMON SCHOOLS.

GENERAL ITEMS.

Mr. Louis J. Jennings says the immorality of the Victorian court is quite as general as that of the court of Charles II. or of Louis bien aime.

Eugenie has been affronted by the quizzical queen of England. She will leave Chiselhurst and take with her the remains of her brave but unfortunate boy.

Solon Chase, the greenback leader of Maine, has refused to run on the fusion electoral ticket there, and denounces the democratic and greenback state committees for their plan of fusion.

It is said that Ulysses Grant, the son of ex-President Grant, is worth $300,000, largely made in mining speculation, and that it was at his solicitation that his father accepted the presidency of a western mining company.

General B. J. Chamber, of Texas, the greenback candidate for vice president, now thinks that his health is sufficiently restored to warrant him in running for the office. This, too, after the result in Alabama was made known!

Miss Carrie Odell of Boston, went into a store and picked up a shawl to carry it to the light and examine it while waiting for a clerk to attend upon her. She was rudely accused of intending to steal it, and the accusation so agitated her that she became crazy and drowned herself.

A newspaper, at Milford, Mass., published the other day full lists of the stockholders in the local national banks. The result made a good deal of local excitement. Some of the loudest talkers about "our banks" appeared with one share each; some of the worst grumblers about their poverty proved to be well off, and several vociferous greenbackers, haters of the banks, were discovered to be well supplied with shares of their own.

Very Good Sarcasm.

From the Nation.

We venture to suggest to our esteemed contemporaries who may be in want of subjects of campaign investigation the Mulligan case, reported in the fourth volume of Wallace's supreme court reports. Mulligan was a "traitor" who was tried by a military commission during the war, but within the limits of the state of Indiana, and sentenced to be hanged. That he was a bad man and richly deserved hanging there can be little doubt, but there was a question whether a man could be legally sentenced by a military commission within a jurisdiction in which there were civil courts sitting for trial of crimes and felonies of all kinds. The matter was brought before the supreme court at Washington, and many able counsel appeared and made arguments, among others Gen. Garfield in favor of Mulligan. The case attracted much attention at the time, and the decision, which was that habeas corpus ought to issue, was generally regarded as a triumph for civil liberty. It brought to an end all trials by military commissions, and from that time (December, 1866) to this no democrat has been hanged in the United States except after trial according to all the forms of law and a verdict by a jury. The wide-spread criminality prevailing among the democrats made the decision of the utmost importance to them; and it is singular to reflect that, while it was through Gen. Hancock that Mrs. Surratt was hung, it was partly through the efforts of Gen. Garfield that the practice of hanging democrats by military commissions was brought to an end.

FEELS YOUNG AGAIN.

"My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy, inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family."—A lady, in Providence, R. I.

CHINESE NEW DEPARTURE.

Facts and Speculations—The "Ho Chung" must Pay the full Charges, Etc.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Washington, Aug. 16.—The only information the state department has received of China's new departure in showing her subjects to engage in foreign commerce was contained in a letter received by the secretary of state on Tuesday last, the substance of which was immediately communicated to the treasury department. The letter of Mr. Evarts was as follows:

The representatives of the government of China at this capital have advised the department that the Chinese screw steamer Ho Chung, the first steamer under the Chinese flag entering an American port, is soon expected to arrive at San Francisco and to prevent any misunderstanding in regard to duties and other charges. I have the honor to request at the instance of Chin Lan Pin and Yung Win, Chinese representatives as above, that proper instructions may be issued to the customs authorities of the port of San Francisco to extend to that vessel's privileges which are conceded to vessels of other nations having treaty relations with this government. Your obedient servant,

W. L. EVARTS.

On the 12th Secretary Sherman acknowledged the receipt of the letter and replied that the director at the port of San Francisco had been directed on the arrival of the Ho Chung to carry out the instructions contained in the revised regulations of the treasury department and exact alien tonnage tax at the rate of $1 per ton in addition to the tax of 30 cents per ton. This is all the information that the government possesses in regard to the new departure.

The department of state has not received any circular, and further action by the government will have to be delayed until the arrival of the Ho Chung at San Francisco. The note of the Chinese minister does not state whether the vessel is from one of the closed ports of China or from a port open to foreigners. In the event that the Ho Chung hails from a port we are not allowed to trade with, she will have to pay $2 80 per ton every time she enters the United States from such ports. Payment of alien tax will entitle her to enter into our ports for twelve months. In any event she will have to pay, in addition to the tonnage tax, ten per cent. ad valorem on the value of her cargo every time she enters a port of the United States, so that the new departure, so far as it effects imports and the carrying trade of the United States, will not be as profitable as at first appeared. So far as Chinese merchantmen may affect the carrying trade of the world, the United states has the least to lose.

Statistics of our commerce with China during the last fiscal year show but 11 American vessels of 9331 tons were engaged in it, while foreign bottoms coming to the United States aggregated 29,923 tons. These figures do not include vessels between Hongkong and the United States. In order for Chinese merchants to enjoy the privileges of American merchants in the United States, a treaty of commerce, giving them reciprocal rights, will be necessary, and one which all other nations would then exact from China. The only thing of importance, so far as the treasury officials can discern in the new departure, is that it allows Chinamen to trade with outside nations, but as for competition of an injurious character that is not, it is said, to be feared.

Comment by the "Commercial Bulletin."

The Commercial Bulletin says of the removal by China of trade restrictions: Unless we are mistaken as to the scope of this change, it will prove to be one of the most significant events to commerce of the nineteenth century. The operation of the new conditions may be slow, but it cannot fail ultimately. It is a matter of no small moment to the commercial nations that 350,000,000 of people whose external commerce is now limited to $250,000,000 imports and exports are now free to cultivate external trade as any other nation. One important result will be, that the foreign trade will no longer be confined to the five treaty ports. The natives at any of the numerous populous cities on the vast sea board of the empire will henceforth be at liberty to transact business with any country. There is no value in this event to foreign merchants, who will ultimately find their way to doing business through the natives at ports from which they are now excluded through the absence of treaty arrangements. The chance of opening markets in the heart of China gives more promise than the hundreds of colonies after which European governments are so eagerly straining.

ANNUAL REPORTS

Of the Taylor Street M. E. Church, and Taylor street and North Portland Sabbath Schools.

The following statistical information concerning the Taylor street M. E. church is taken from Rev. J. H. Acton's report, read at the annual meeting yesterday:

The number of probationers on the church roll as reported to the last conference was 39, and of full members, 388. This last item however, as then reported, was taken from the record as left by Brother Anthony, with only such deductions and additions as had been made during the year by the present pastor. Many, no doubt, had removed without letters whose names were still on the roll at the end of the year. Since then a new record has been commenced, and a committee appointed by the official board to weed out the names of those no longer here, and are known to have permanently left the city, has done its work; 107 names have thus been dropped, leaving the present membership 265, and probationers 30.

During the past year the following changes have taken place:

Received on probation	15
Received by certificate	27
Received from probation	14
Removed by certificate	35
Died	1
Withdrawn	1

The following amounts of money have been raised for the purposes named up to date. This report is necessarily incomplete, as the pastor's salary, benevolent collections and some other items are not yet fully reported upon:

Pastor's salary	$1215 00
Presiding Elder's salary	100 00
Current expenses	1139 80
For church improvement	1300 00
Benevolent collections (including Ladies Relief fund)	133 85

COLUMBIA RIVER CONFERENCE.

Abstract of the Proceedings—List of Appointments.

The seventh annual session of the Columbia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church closed at the Dalles on Sunday evening last, about thirty ministers being present and Bishop Wiley as the presiding officer.

The session was pleasant, and the reports from the various fields of labor—extending all over Eastern Oregon and Washington and taking in the Boise and Lewiston district of Idaho—were of a cheering and hopeful character.

The ministers seem to be of the type best required for laying the foundation of religious work in this new country—strong, hearty, busy men; mostly young or in middle life—all of whom seemed to be full of enthusiasm, hope and faith in the result of their labors. There is also an evident improvement in intellectual ability and culture of the present young ministers of the Methodist denomination over the majority of those of the previous generation.

Two years ago, a new and handsome church was dedicated at Walla Walla; also one near Walla Walla. Last year, a large and fine church was dedicated at Boise City, and on last Sabbath the new church at the Dalles, just completed, and capable of seating three hundred and fifty persons, was dedicated in the presence of a crowded audience. A new parsonage has also just been completed. The deficiency, $2000, needed to pay for the improvements was pledged in a few minutes, much to the gratification of pastor, people and congregation, and the pastor, Rev. H. K. Hines, may congratulate himself upon the success of what seemed an impossible task when first begun by him a few months since.

The affairs of the Pacific Christian Advocate occupied a considerable share of the thought and attention of the conference, nearly all of one entire session being consumed in considering the subject, developing a degree of enthusiasm, loyalty and determination in regard to its future that, if seconded by the Oregon conference soon to assemble, will at once place the paper in a more healthy condition than ever before. So it appeared to the friends of the paper and to all who listened to the debate.

Bishop Wiley, who made a very favorable impression upon the conference, preached a sermon of great clearness and power Sunday forenoon. Services were also held in the afternoon and evening, all of which were largely attended, many being unable to obtain seats.

The following are the appointments, as read by the bishop at the close of the services Sunday evening:

The Barrel Organ Style.

The following is from that sober, staid, fair-minded and non-partisan paper, the New York Evening Post:

What are the paramount questions of the day? What are the opinions of the democratic party on these questions? If the democratic party should get control of the government what would it do about this, that and the other thing? These are not impertinent inquiries. They are entirely relevant, and they must be answered before the 2d of November if intelligent and thinking voters are to be influenced. But we get no answers to them from the organs. Set never so mild an interrogation point before them and the reply comes screaming, "Credit Mobilier!" "De Golyer!" The changes are rung, "Credit Mobilier—De Golyer," "De Golyer—Credit Mobilier," article after article, column after column, day after day, week after week, until the patience even of men who try hard to believe the charges is exhausted and they turn with rising nausea from the monotonous repetition.

A SICKENING HORROR.

Three Children Burned to Death at Oakland, Cal.—Drunken Debauch of their Parents the Cause.

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Oakland, Aug. 16.—An alarm of fire was sounded at about 10:30 to-night for the district south of Seventh street and east of Broadway. It was caused by the burning of a small one-story tenement house located on the south side of Second, between Jackson and Madison. Before the firemen could reach the scene the building was ablaze and before a stream could be brought to bear upon the same nothing but ruins were visible. Soon after the arrival of the firemen the startling information that several human beings had been burned was obtained. Search was at once instituted, and the information proved true. Amongst the ruins the remains of two children were found, burned to a crisp. It was ascertained that the occupants of the house at the time the alarm sounded were John Kallaher, his wife, four children and a woman named King. During the day and evening Kallaher had bought several buckets of beer. Mrs. King, his wife and Kallaher himself got beastly drunk. The children retired about half past eight o'clock and their parents with Mrs. King threw themselves upon a bed in the front room at about 10 o'clock. The cause of the fire can only be conjectured. The theory is that one of the three capsized a coal oil lamp. The names of the two children found in an unrecognized condition and dead are Eugene and Annie Kallaher, aged two and five years respectively. They were asleep in a room adjoining that of their parents. Jimmy Kallaher, aged four, is badly burned, and it is impossible for him to survive. Lizzie Kallaher, aged eight, escaped uninjured. Mrs. Kallaher presents a sickening appearance. Her face is burned badly, her hair is all burned off, and from her waist up to her shoulders the skin was literally peeled off. Her feet were fearfully burned also. Mrs. King had her arm broken and was also very badly burned about the face, head and legs. Kallaher managed to escape with a few slight bruises. Those residing in the immediate vicinity broke open the doors soon after the fire was discovered and carried a man out doors. Kallaher is a laborer. His wife keeps a poultry stand at the corner of Sixth and Broadway streets.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—Mrs. Kallaher, one of the women burned so badly at Oakland last night, died to-day. The other woman is reported dying.

OFFICIAL SALARIES.

A correspondent, arguing in favor of our system of low salaries for state officials, has urged that the governor for example, is paid enough, because his duties need not interfere with his customary vocation, also that $1500 per annum would be adequate compensation for the secretary of state, since there are men competent for the position who in other employments do not receive larger salaries than that sum. As we have said heretofore we do not believe in paying salaries for official service in excess of moderate compensation, but the measure of this moderate compensation ought to be at least equal to what good capacity for business which requires careful attention, special knowledge and proper responsibility, would command in other directions. It is true the governor of our state is not occupied a great share of his time with his official duties but it is true also that there are not many employments in which men fit for the office are likely to engage which will not be criticised by one and another as improper for the governor of a state. The laws, of which he is the executive, touch business and the general affairs of life in so many ways that the governor is almost sure to call down criticism upon himself if he engages actively in any business. A case in point which affords excellent illustration is that of the present executive who was required by law to appoint justices of the supreme court. It is not forgotten how he was censured, and how many reflections were cast upon him for engaging in active practice of the law before a tribunal of his own creating. Yet the practice of the law was his usual pursuit. This incident shows how untenable is the proposition that the duties of the governor need not interfere with his customary vocation. Suppose him to be interested in fishing, in insurance, in transportation, or in any of the many lines of business which are subjects of legislation or to be regulated by law;—then it is apparent that his duties as governor are likely to come in conflict with his business interests; and whatever course he takes with reference to laws affecting those interests, whether in regard to enactment of new laws or enforcement of old ones, is sure to be followed by criticism which will make it appear to many that he has acted in an unseemly manner, and has not been properly mindful of the duties and obligations of his position. It may make little difference to us what the people of Michigan pay their governor. He may be, as the governors of some of the other states—Ohio for example—only the dignified and merely ornamental part of the constitution, with few powers and fewer duties. The governor of Massachusetts has $5000 a year, the governor of Maine $2500, the governor of Delaware $2000, the governor of Kentucky $5000, the governor of Louisiana $8000, the governor of Iowa $3000, the governor of Maryland $4500, the governor of Colorado $3000, and the governor of Wisconsin $5000. Michigan, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont are the only states paying so small a salary as $1000; and after them there is no state which pays so small a salary as Oregon. As for the offices of secretary and treasurer of our state, both are very responsible positions, and both demand a good deal of work. That of secretary particularly requires fitness—and by fitness we mean both capacity and integrity. Secretary Chadwick was thought to be a proper man for the position, but he acted in a manner which enables him to defend his honesty only at the expense of his intelligence, or his intelligence at the expense of his honesty. His predecessor, May, was similarly unfit. The point we make is that the office requires high character and capacity, which is not adequately paid at $125 a month; and if we do not always get first class men for so important a position at the wages paid a common accountant, we need not wonder at the failure. True it is that by various expedients the salary has been increased to nearly or perhaps quite $3000 a year. But there is grave doubt whether this is not done in defiance of constitutional authority. Many expedients of equally doubtful validity have from time to time been employed to increase the compensation of the treasurer. The proper way would be to abolish all these devices and pay fair salaries outright. As this can be done only by amending the constitution, we should like to see a proposition to that effect submitted. The governor and secretary should each have $3000, and the treasurer $2000 a year. Then everything should be guarded so that there would be no "perquisites" whatever. This would not only be the proper and honest method, but the economical one. After all is said in favor of our system of very low salaries, it may be declared with confidence that such a system is really an expensive one, and our experience in this state may be brought forward to prove it. Again, it may be confidently asserted that no banker or other person having very large business could employ any competent man to act as his general manager and take the responsibility of a business as great as that devolved upon our secretary of state for $2500 a year or for less than four or five times that sum. It would all be very well if you could make the secretary of state a mere clerk without any special responsibility; but as it is an office which requires the largest responsibility, it ought to be adequately paid.

WASTE AND LOSS IN FARM IMPLEMENT. H. W. S.

That the production of the enormous crops of grain now raised in this country is largely due to the employment of improved implements and labor-saving machines no one will question. Without the self binder it would have been impossible in many localities to harvest the great crops of the last several years. But we think it apparent that there has been waste in the purchase of farm implements. In this direction many farmers seem to have gone to extremes. The Chicago Times says that in the grain-producing states of the upper Mississippi valley it is common to find small farms on which there is kept agricultural machinery of fully half the value of the farms, for which machinery the farmers are usually in debt, and on which they are paying ten per cent interest. It may be doubted whether there is any other community with a population no greater than that of Oregon and Washington—say 250,000—all told—which lays out so much money in agricultural implements and machinery as our farmers do here; and there are few who have looked into the subject who will agree that these expenditures are always made with good judgment for economy, or that the machinery has been properly cared for after it has been obtained. The rage to throw aside implements and machinery of old patterns and buy new has rarely been exceeded in the rage to change the fashions of millinery or house building. Then the waste of farm implements is proverbial. Plows are left in the ground where last used Harrows, cultivators and rollers remain out of doors during the entire year. Costly reapers and mowers stand in the field or yard till the wood rots and the iron is eaten up with rust. Horse rakes are used for hen roosts, and harness is suffered to become rotten and worthless for want of oil. Not one farmer in ave has a suitable building in which to store his tools and machinery, and a yet smaller number ever think of repainting. It is not too much to say that the implements of the farm are more injured by exposure than by actual use in the field. With such waste it is no wonder that the cost of farming tools is very great. The enormous supplies constantly brought to Oregon are perhaps not wanted for new farms in greater quantities than to repair the wear and waste—much of which is needless—on old farms. There is an extravagance here which becomes a serious drawback to the country. Then fashion and rivalry have much to do with it. One farmer does not like to be behind another in the matter of owning costly tools. If he sees his neighbor using a new-fangled implement he loses no time in getting one for himself. Many farmers purchase new machines before the old ones are worn out, notwithstanding the hard usage they have received, because an agent declares that the new one has some very valuable improvements. The extravagance of many of our farmers in these and other respects would soon result in their ruin were it not for the great crops easily obtained from a naturally fertile soil. Then the price of farming implements used in the United States is said to be high as compared with prices paid in other countries. This high price may be accounted for in different ways. Everything a farmer uses in the production and harvesting of crops and preparing them for market, from the plow with which he turns his furrows to the fanningmill with which he cleans his grain, is patented. The tributs farmers pay to patentees is enormous. The price of almost everything that enters into the composition of farming implements is rendered costly by our tariff laws. The profits of the manufacture of these articles are greater than those realized to the makers of most articles sold in the market. A very large proportion of the millionaires of the middle states acquired their vast fortunes in the manufacture of farm machinery. But farmers have themselves done almost as much as patentees and manufacturers to render the price of farm machinery high. They have purchased on credit and rendered cash sales so unfrequent as to be the exceptions to the general mode of sale. Dealers in any kind of goods charge their losses in business from non payment to the price of the articles they sell. The credit system has caused all kinds of farming implements to pass through several hands from the time they leave the manufactory till they reach the field. Many farmers take one implement in preference to another, not because it is better or cheaper, but because they can purchase it on longer time. So long as these articles are procured on long time the prices of them will continue to be high. The credit system involves losses and these losses must be met by the persons who pay for what they purchase. On the whole there is manifestly great loss, through waste and extravagance, in farm implements and machinery; and we doubt whether there are farmers elsewhere who can more profitably consider the subject than those of Oregon and Washington.

H. W. S.

Among northern doughfaces and lackeys who truckled to southern love-drivers in the days when the great contest was going on between slavery and freedom no one was more servile than Bill English of Indiana, now democratic candidate for the vice presidency. So execrated was he as a tool of the slave power that when the mighty moral sentiment of the north was awakened he was driven out of congress and into retirement, from which till now he has never been able to emerge. During the whole of the struggle to stem the aggressive advance of the south to extend slavery over free territory he behaved in a way which dishonored human nature by showing the depths to which a politician without moral sense could descend. In a speech in congress in 1860 he said: "I thank God that my constituents are white freemen, and I glory in the belief that they will never consent to be placed on an equality with the negro. Republicans say their 'irrepressible conflict' must go on until all the states become all slave or all free. Why all all free? Is it not because they think that the negro is deprived of free and equal rights which ought to be restored to him? The free negro is unfit to govern himself; and under the most favorable circumstances in free states it is said he has but three rounds in the ladder of his ambition—to be a boss barber, to own a banjo and marry a white wife. The inferior being we find him the almighty made him for some purpose. I appeal to my countrymen to set their face against this whole anti-slavery agitation." The politician who could ever have talked in this way is by nature a most despicable creature, the mere recital of whose conduct after twenty years is enough to awaken the profoundest indignation.

How many cases there are throughout the state where the school funds have been loaned on insufficient security, with interest now largely in arrears, it might be hard to ascertain with accuracy. But a correspondent at Roseburg gives one case of the kind which it may be fairly concluded is a specimen of many more. The decent thing for Jesse N. Barker would have been to pay long ago this money due to the school fund, principal and interest, out of the great sums he grabbed under pretense of selecting swamp lands, for which no real service was rendered. But he and his brother-in-law, the late secretary of state and acting governor, did not plunder with one hand from the treasury to pay back with the other. It was a grab game all the time with both hands, and never letting go with either.

General Hancock says, "It is only by a full vote, free ballot and fair count that the people can rule in fact." Yet, if all this were permitted in the south, there would be no more chance of Hancock's election than that he should succeed M. Grevy as president of France. A "full vote, free ballot and fair count" would give Garfield half a dozen southern states in November. But this Hancock's friends in the south will never allow, and he knew it when he penned that sentence for buncombe.

Deprecating a slavish following in this country of European educational methods, Co. Higginson writes: "If we had waited to organize our public school system on the German system—a university graduate half starved in every village school house—we should have waited for centuries. It will be centuries, let us hope, before we shall see here that surplus of highly educated men, and that want of varied outlets for their services, which Germany now exhibits."

Mr. Halstead of the Cincinnati Commercial remarks of Indiana: "It is my judgment that the democracy have provided for themselves, through their personal and political entanglements—their green-eyed and green-backed monsters—the conditions of defeat in October, and therefore the loss of the presidential election."

TUESDAY MORNING, AUG. 17, 1880

CITY.

GONE REGARDLESS.—A few days ago a Chinaman came to Judge Rice and stated to that official that one of his countrymen was now confined in the asylum, having been adjudged a lunatic. He said he felt a deep interest in his celestial friend, and desired to send him back to China to his relatives. If Judge Rice would release him from the asylum, he would send the patient off on the next steamer. Judge Rice stated to the applicant that he could not allow the Chinaman to go unless he was assured, first, that he would be properly cared for on the way, and second, that he would be properly cared for and prevented from harming himself or others. To these conditions the man readily assented, pledging himself that the friends of the demented person would see that he was properly attended to. If satisfactory assurances are given, it is quite probable that the crazy Chinaman will be handed over to his countrymen and sent away. It would be a humane action to the man, and rid the taxpayers of a burden.

DEATH OF W. H. MIESSE.—A letter was received by a gentleman of this city a few days since, conveying the sad intelligence of the death of Rev. W. H. Miesse. He died in Cincinnati on the 28th of July. Mr. Miesse was well known in Portland, where he resided for several years. He was pastor of the Hall street M. E. Church for some time. He graduated at Willamette University about five years ago, receiving a diploma in the scientific course. Subsequently Mr. Miesse went east and studied theology in Drew's Seminary. At the time of his death Mr. M. was pastor of the Pearl street M. E. Church of Cincinnati.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—The ladies of the First Baptist church will give a grand moonlight excursion to Oregon City next Friday evening for the benefit of the East Portland Baptist Sunday school and the Sunday school library of the Baptist church of this city. The steamer A. A. McCully has been chartered for the occasion, and will leave Salmon-street wharf at 8 P. M., calling at Dodd & Slike's dock, East Portland, for excursionists from that side of the river. Refreshments will be served on the boat, also at the vestry of the Baptist church in Oregon City, where the excursionists will proceed on arrival there.

DEATH OF JOHN DEVORE.—Mr. John DeVore, son of Rev. J. F. DeVore, of Seattle, died at Carson City, Nevada, on August 8th. Deceased had been in poor health for some time. A few months ago he left this state in hope of benefiting his health. He failed to receive the relief anticipated and died on the date mentioned. Deceased was 23 years of age. Mrs. Josie DeVore Johnson, sister of the deceased, went to Nevada some time ago and was with him at the time of his death. The remains are on board the Oregon, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson.

IT IS IMPROVING.—The high water which prevailed during July did considerable damage to the road between East Portland and Vancouver. In a few weeks—just as soon as the water recedes—Gen. Howard proposes to put the road a number of the troops now stationed at Fort Vancouver. A great deal of very effective work was done last spring by the soldiers of that post. The good work will be followed up between now and the commencement of the fall rains.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Sunday while Miss Mary Kennedy and her sister Amanda were out taking a buggy ride at St. Paul, Marion county, the horse took fright and commenced running towards the river, when an awful accident was avoided by the coolness and presence of mind of one of the young ladies. She jumped out of the vehicle and seized the horse by the bridle and stopped him, but not until they came off very lucky, breaking the shafts of the buggy.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—From a gentleman who arrived yesterday afternoon on the train we learn that a man named Nelson, residing at Junction City, Lane county, committed suicide Sunday by cutting his throat. One arrested was unable to give further particulars. No reason is assigned for the rash and fatal deed. The body of the unfortunate man was brought down to Harrisburg for interment. It is not known whether he leaves a family or not.

LUCK TROUT.—Mr. E. M. Tabor, the well known draughtsman, is certainly entitled to the appellation of the "boss angler." Yesterday evening he caught, after sundown, a magnificent trout. One of these trout weighed four pounds and two ounces and another three pounds, and third and fourth fish two pounds. The fish were caught somewhere between Portland and the foot of the falls, but just where Mr. Tabor declined to say.

MASONIC PROCEEDINGS.—Mr. J. M. Bacon, of Oregon City, has laid this office under obligation for two pamphlets containing the annual proceedings of the sixth annual communication of the right worthy grand encampment, I. O. O. F. of Oregon; also the twenty-fifth annual communication of the right worthy grand lodge of the same order. The work was done in a very neat and substantial manner by A. G. Walling.

[illegible]—Many readers of THE OREGONIAN will remember Mr. Stanley O. Royal, son of Rev. T. F. Royal, who graduated several years ago at Willamette University. After graduating with honors here, the young gentleman went east and graduated at Drew's Theological Seminary. Mr. Royal is at present pastor of one of the Methodist Churches in [illegible], and is very popular with his congregation.

DEDICATION.—Sunday afternoon the new chapel in St. Vincent's hospital, was dedicated by Rev. J. F. Fierens, V. G., assisted by a number of other clergymen. The St. Vincent de Paul Society attended the dedication in a body. The new chapel is now sufficiently large to accommodate the requirements of the hospital. Father J. S. White will be the chaplain.

FREIGHT CLERK.—Mr. Ben Smith, who has for years very acceptably filled the position of freight clerk on the steamer State of California for several years, has been appointed to a similar position on the Columbia. Mr. Smith is a very competent and courteous gentleman, and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his promotion.

CALLED TO A CHAIR.—Rev. Ladru Royal, well known among educators of the state, has recently been appointed to one of the chairs in the Ashland college, Jackson county. Mr Royal will fill the position of professor of ancient languages in that institution. Studies will be resumed at Ashland college on September 6.

LOWER LIMBS OFF.—Last Saturday, C. P. [illegible], superintendent of streets, set a large gang of the city prisoners employed in trimming off the lower limbs from the shade trees which stood near gas lamps. This was for the purpose of preventing the branches from obstructing the light at night.

GRADING OF WATER STREET.—The estimate for the improvement of Water street from the north line of Columbia to the north line of [illegible] is as follows: Excavation, 654 cubic yards; embankment, 170 yards; sidewalk, [illegible] feet; crosswalk, 684 feet; box gutter, [illegible] feet; plank roadway, 3148 feet.

[illegible] VISIT.—It is said that a large number of Catholics from this city intend going with Rev. P. Mackin of Oregon City, a visit to [illegible] Sunday next, for which purpose they have chartered a boat to carry them there in time to take part in the celebration of high mass.

HELD TO ANSWER.—Ah Wong, the festive Celestial, for the larceny of a coat, and Alice Allen for the larceny of $60, have both been held to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $250.

EXCURSIONISTS.—A correspondent writing from Astoria under date of August 15, says: "The towing tug Edith left here to-day having on board about 75 excursionists bound for the Sandy."

ANNUAL CONFERENCE.—The Oregon conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will convene at Eugene City on Thursday, Aug. [illegible]. Bishop Wiley will preside.

DANGEROUSLY ILL.—Mrs. H. T. Hudson returned from the seaside last Thursday, since which time she has been lying dangerously ill at her home in this city.

THE "OREGON."—The Oregon arrived in Baker's bay yesterday afternoon, and at 9 o'clock last night was waiting for high tide to come to Astoria.

W. J. Quinn, merchant tailor, will be a passenger on the outgoing steamer to purchase a fall stock.

MONDAY MORNING'S FIRE.

EIGHT BUILDINGS BURNED—EIGHT FAMILIES RENDERED HOMELESS.

Most Disastrous Fire of 1880—Loss, $32,000; Insurance, $12,500.

As THE OREGONIAN went to press, at 2:30 yesterday morning, it was thought the fire on Front street between Market and Mill was well under control. The scant supply of water, however, crippled the department, and the fire kept gaining until it destroyed all the buildings on the block bounded by Front, Water, Market and Mill except three, viz: One on the southwest corner, occupied by S. Ross; one on Mill, occupied by the widow and family of Charles Duport, who was fatally scalded a year ago, and one on the northeast corner. The firm of D. M. Osborne & Co., of Auburn, N. Y., had a large number of reapers and mowers, self-binders and wire stored in the warehouse, and are heavy losers. Following is a list of losses and insurance:

Newbury, Hawthorne & Co., on warehouse, $2000; insured for $1000 in Commercial Union; on stock of agricultural implements, $1000; insured for $1500 in the State Investment.

D. M. Osborne & Co., reapers and mowers, $17,700; insured, $9500, as follows: Home Mutual, $5000; Commercial, $2000; Phœnix, $2400; California, $2400.

W. A. Lewis, a farmer, residing near Ames' chapel, four dwellings, two on Water and two on Front street, $4000; no insurance.

Jacob Zimmerman, a farmer, residing on Columbia Slough, two dwellings on Market street, $3000; no insurance.

Frank Hornstrom, dwelling, No. 352 Front, $500; no insurance.

Thos. McKenna, Pat Donahue and P. Coyle, occupants of Lewis' houses, lose about $100 each; no insurance.

Josiah Green, damage to furniture $150; insured.
Mrs. Bennett, loss on furniture, $300; not insured.
Frank Jones, damage to furniture, $150.
J. Bencke, damage to furniture, $150.

There seems to be no other cause for the fire than incendiarism. There had been no fire about the building for months, no straw, and nothing to produce spontaneous combustion. Mr. W. J. Humphrey, a compositor of THE OREGONIAN, as he was returning home saw the fire—then so small that it could have been extinguished with a few bucketfuls of water—on the outside of the building at the northwest corner. At the base of the fire he saw handfuls of straw, which looked as though it had been carried there. He ran to a neighbor's house, raised an alarm; but before he could get them aroused the fire had spread rapidly, and in a few moments had run through the building.

The fire showed a lack of cisterns of sufficient capacity in the southern portion of the city, which should be supplied with the least possible delay.

BRIEF NOTES.

Seasiders returning.

Steamer Columbia gone.

Council Wednesday evening.

Cool and pleasant for dog days.

Air feels just a trifle autumn ish.

The poor farm is being improved.

Portland has experienced quite a heavy fire.

The steeple of Taylor street church is being painted.

Mr. E. J. Northrup will accept thanks for favors received.

A great deal of public interest is felt in the time the new steamship Columbia will make.

"She is a beauty," was the common exclamation of those who visited the new ship yesterday and last night.

A quantity of granite curb stones is noticed spread around the New Market block. This looks as if the owners contemplate laying a solid stone sidewalk.

H. W. Cushing was knocked hors de combat during the fire yesterday morning by a falling door, which struck him on the head, inflicting an ugly contusion.

It is stated that the old iron works at Albina are to be converted into a slaughter house and packing establishment, and that a force of men is at work there.

We learn that Mr. Peter Manciet of the St. Charles will soon remove to his large brick building on upper First street, which he will conduct as a first class establishment.

The pontoon to the Jefferson street ferry was taken up and relaid Sunday night, a large force of men being employed for the purpose. The slip has now an easy and pleasant grade.

Mr. J. W. Rootz, near Marshfield, Clackamas county, lost all his fences last week by forest fires, and saved his house only by the exertions of himself and neighbors in a two days' struggle. The fire was the result of carelessness of a neighbor who was burning a slashing. The people of Marshfield had great difficulty in keeping the fire away from their town.

PERSONAL.

Hon. A. S. Abernethy, of Colfax, is in the city on his way to New Tacoma and Oak Point.

Mr. Paul Richter, one of our old-time merchants, who has been making his summer trip to Oregon, returns to San Francisco on the Columbia.

Rev. H. K. Hines, one of the old pioneer ministers of Oregon, has been tendered the position of editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, and we understand has signified his acceptance.

Bishop Wiley, who has been presiding over the Columbia river conference at The Dalles, returned to this city this morning, stopping over a day at Salem.

Mr. John S. Lindsay, the well known and popular actor, leaves on the Columbia this morning. Mr Lindsay, should he return, may be assured of a hearty welcome at the hands of Portland's amusement lovers.

W. H. Gray, Esq., of Astoria, started yesterday morning for Summit prairie, on the Barlow road. He has been suffering for the past year with asthma, and goes to the mountains in hopes of benefiting his health.

NORTHWESTERNERS AT SAN FRANCISCO.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—The following northwesterners are registered at the hotels here: S. Mcrity, W. T.; B Corner, J. Fredricks, E. Phelan, E. Oiendorff, Portland; C. T. Stiles, W. T.; W. Douglas, J. B. Bookser, Astoria; J. C. Carroll, W. H. Provines and wife, Charles Vinson, F. McCafferty, J. G. Davidson, C. Jones, G. W. Smith and family, James Fair and family, R. O. BASE BALL.

A match game of base ball between the Astoria Base Ball Club and the Fort Stevens Club was played at Fort Canby on Sunday. The Astorians scored 26 against their opponents' 11. Maj. Throckmorton acted as umpire

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Attention is called to the advertisement, under "new to-day," of desirable city property by Mr. J. P. O. Lownsdale, real estate agent

SMOKY ATMOSPHERE.—A gentleman who came from The Dalles yesterday informs us that the smoke from the burning forests is so great as to render sight-seeing on the Columbia this side of the Cascades out of the question, and sometimes is so bad as to make navigation slow and tedious.

WATER TO BE SHUT OFF.—Water will be shut off this morning from 8 o'clock until 11 on the following streets: Front, from Lincoln north; Market, from Fourth to Front, and First, from Morrison north.

PICNIC.—The Danish society will give a picnic at Canyon gardens next Sunday. Prizes will be awarded to the best dancers. The Northwestern band will furnish music for the occasion.

THE GRANT RACE.—The three boating clubs held meetings last night and appointed committees to make all arrangements for the race for the Grant cup, which will be rowed next Saturday.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE.—This hotel, under its new management, has become one of the very best hotels in Portland; as, since it was rebuilt with additions, it is much the largest. It is rapidly winning public favor.

50,000 sewing machine needles, all kinds, at Barbey's, the repairer. 37 Yamhill street.

The leading music house north of San Francisco—D. W. Prentice & Co., Portland.

Elegant dresses for $15 at Minville & Co's, 151 Third street.

Peter Wilhelm reigns supreme at the Gem in Astoria. Call and see him.

For the very best photographs go to Frank G Abell, 167 and 169 First street, Portland.

N. Y. Coffee House, 132 First St. Ladies rooms now open. Q. Voos, manager.

Seasonable time for imbibing choice beer and Molson's is just the kind.

The boom still is the rage. Gigantic pop corn prizes in every box. Wholesale and retail depot at Post Office store.

CABLE NEWS.—You will find a fine assortment of majolica, semi-porcelain and glassware at Olds & Summers, 183 First street. They are sole agents for the celebrated Hero oil, 150 fire test.

THE "COLUMBIA"

THROWN OPEN TO THE PUBLIC YESTERDAY.

Not Less than 7000 Persons Visit the Steamer—Universal Admiration Expressed.

Ever since the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company's new and elegant steamship Columbia reached her wharf in this city a force of painters have been constantly employed in putting the vessel in trim. Portions of the woodwork were retouched and made to look as bright and new as when the Columbia glided down the ways and took her first plunge into the water. After the freight had all been discharged the vessel was thoroughly overhauled and cleaned.

No effort was spared to place the steamer in the best possible condition. Every preparation having been completed, the vessel was formerly thrown open to the inspection of the public yesterday from 3 P. M. to 10 P. M.

Before 3 o'clock a large crowd of ladies and gentlemen had assembled on the wharf eagerly awaiting the hour. From this hour mentioned, up to late last night, a stream of humanity continued to pour in the direction of the steamer, while the tide soon commenced to flow in an opposite way. Two large gangways were placed from the wharf to the ship—one about midship and the other forward. These gangways were thronged all the time by the crowds pressing eagerly to get on board and those endeavoring to reach the dock after having gratified their curiosity. Every nook and corner of the vessel was carefully and critically inspected—we might say scrutinized by thousands of eyes. Just how well the vessel and her elegant appointments, finishing and furnishing stood the test may be better understood from the hundreds of exclamations heard on every hand: "Is she not elegant: how beautiful: everything is perfect; such a floating palace," etc. etc.

To attempt to describe this magnificent steamer would be superfluous, as columns have already been filled, and the whole store of adjectives exhausted. All who visited the Columbia last evening were more than convinced that the accounts already published of her appointments, finish and accommodations have not been overdrawn; and there was but one feeling among the thousands who visited her yesterday, and that was admiration.

Those who have made trips between San Francisco and Portland on the old steamers Ajax, John L. Stephens, Oriflamme, Idaho and Moses Taylor, can realize the greater personal convenience, comfort, speed and safety afforded by such floating palaces furnished by the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company as the Oregon, Elder and Columbia. For the expenditure of such sums in building and equipping vessels of the latter class, the company deserves great credit at the hands of the public.

The Columbia was brilliantly illuminated with electric light from stem to stern, while from the rigging was suspended a large and powerful light which could be seen for many blocks. These lights were very attractive and the subject of general comment and admiration.

It is estimated that during the afternoon and evening not less than 7000 persons visited the new vessel.

The Columbia sails for San Francisco this morning at 3 o'clock with the following passengers:

THE DROWNING WAVES.

Details of the Death of Miss Eva Burbank at Ilwaco Beach.

Narrow Escape of her Escort and Mr. Chambreau of Portland, Etc., Etc.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO THE OREGONIAN.]

ASTORIA, Aug. 15, 1880.

A telegram this evening informed you of a sad event which has cast a deep gloom over the entire company of pleasure seekers and summer visitors at Ilwaco and the ocean beach beyond. A casualty of this kind may be considered incidental to sea bathing, but there are some peculiar features connected with this sorrowful dispensation which renders it peculiarly distressing.

Miss Eva Burbank, the thread of whose young life has been so suddenly snapped, came down here with some friends, who composed what is known at Ilwaco, as the East Portland camp. They pitched their tents in the grove near the foot of the portage on the weather beach, in order that they might enjoy the benefits of genuine sea bathing. The company consisted of some thirty individuals and a merry party they were, and poor Eva is said to have been the life of the camp.

"Amiable, she won all; intelligent, she charmed all; fervent, she loved all; and, alas, dead she saddened all." As the family of the deceased young lady is well known and her own circle of acquaintance extensive, doubtless many will be interested to read in the columns of THE OREGONIAN the exact particulars of her sad death by drowning this afternoon about 3 o'clock. Your correspondent interviewed Messrs. F. A. Graves and Joseph Chambreau, who alone were actual eye witnesses of the occurrence, and obtained from them the following information:

Mr. Graves is a printer in the Astorian office. He went down to Ilwaco with with an excursion party from this city to-day, and with several others crossed over the portage to the weather beach. The lady whom he accompanied from Astoria introduced him to Miss Burbank at the East Portland camp, where a party was made up to go in bathing in the surf. Miss B. went down to the beach in her bathing suit without any escort, seeing which Mr. Graves offered to accompany her into the water and she accepted his invitation. Miss Burbank was below the average hight of a girl of eighteen, and Mr. Graves says they soon reached what he considered the limits of a safe distance. He so informed her and then proposed to go no farther out. She laughingly replied that she had often been out farther than that, and urged him to proceed, which he says to gratify her, though with some reluctance, he did.

He judges they were about 500 feet from the shore line when suddenly a much heavier wave than they had before met came rolling in, and as they were borne up on its crest they were lifted off their feet, touching bottom again as they sank in the trough, but when the undertow came they were resistlessly carried out with it. Two other heavy seas followed in quick succession with a similar result, each one carrying both Graves and the lady farther out in spite of his efforts to prevent it. Mr. Graves says that by this time he fully realized that their lives were in danger, and he enjoined on his companion to obey his instructions, and not to grasp his arms and then perhaps he could save her. He then caught her arm and told her when he lifted her up to cry for help. This she did, but every time Graves raised her up his head went under water. At this time Mr. Chambreau of your city, and Mr. D. Hamburger and two ladies were the nearest parties to them, they being about 100 feet distant. The undertow from the breakers was carrying Graves and Miss Burbank farther and farther out, when she suddenly turned toward him and seized both his arms as in a death grip, rendering him powerless to save either her or himself. Mr. Graves says he then made up his mind that both must be drowned, and as the unfortunate girl bore him down under the waves he made a strong effort to throw his arms violently apart and then found himself again head above water. Miss B. also came to the surface, and he again seized her by the arm and held her up for some time, when she suddenly placed her feet against his body and sprang away from him towards some one who was swimming towards them. Looking around he saw Mr. Chambreau about ten feet from him, supporting the form of Miss B. With the idea that Miss Burbank would now be saved, Graves, with what little strength he had, made for the shore, which he finally reached more dead than alive.

Mr. Chambreau says that when he reached Miss Burbank, he saw that she was almost gone. She was unable to speak. He placed one hand under her back and held her up, taking a tight hold on her dress. As he turned to swim towards the shore another heavy sea came, and they were both overwhelmed by it. In going down she grasped his left arm with both of her hands.

The closing scene is give in Chambreau's own words: "When we came up the poor girl had both hands hold of my left arm. I found we were drifting still further to sea, and knowing I could do nothing as long as she held me, I endeavored to release myself from her grasp so that I could get a hold of her. I succeeded in breaking her hold of my arm, and just then another heavy sea came and carried her away from me, and I saw her no more. With great difficulty I reached the shore. I thought Graves had been drowned too, but he almost miraculously reached the shore soon after I did."

Mr. and Mrs. Burbank received the shocking news of their daughter's death at half past ten o'clock yesterday morning, a courier having conveyed a telegram to their home from McMinnville. They hastened to Carlton and took the west side train for this city. They leave for Ilwaco this morning, hoping she [illegible].

In referring to the drowning of Miss Burbank, the Telegram of last night says: "She was born in 1861, at Monticello, then a thriving pioneer town of Washington territory, where her parents resided for several years. A few years subsequent to her birth the shifting and capricious river Cowlitz changed its channel during a freshet, carrying with it the greater portion of the buildings of the town and totally obliterating the site upon which her father's house, the only hotel in the place, stood. In connection with her sad and sudden death by the merciless waves, a statement made by her mother when speaking of her only and idolized daughter during the sunny days of her joyous childhood that Eva had no birthplace, the spot where she was born being now about the middle of the channel of the Cowlitz river, is remembered. Sad indeed will be the sequel if the cruel waves forbid that she has a burial place."

The Price of Wheat.

The bountiful harvest in both this country and Europe will no doubt cause wheat to rule very low this season, but this will not lessen the demand for the Oregon Kidney Tea, as every man or woman who has a backache or any trouble with the kidneys or urinary organs, will try this well known remedy even if wheat should be only 50c per bushel. Sold by all Druggists.

Don't import beer when a fine article like Molson's is to be had.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.

No people in the world suffer as much with Dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heart burn, Water brash Sick Headache, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of the food, low spirits, general debility, etc., yet since the introduction of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER we believe there is no case of Dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. 10,000 dozen sold last year without one case of failure reported. Go to your Druggist and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cents.

NEW YORK Aug 16.—Money 2@3, governments quiet stocks closed firm, W. U., 104¼; Erie 42.

The week opens with a good degree of activity in most branches of business in the local market but with no special change in prices. The time has not yet arrived for any important move of the new wheat crop, and while buyers are by no means anxious to make contracts for the future, sellers are not at all urgent or numerous. The receipts of new are embraced in about 1300 sacks. The quotations given by telegraph from New York indicate a strong and advancing tone to the market, while European advices are of another color The movement in New York is probably the work of the manipulators. In San Francisco the volume of trade is increasing, stimulated by the willingness of holders to make some concessions. There however seems to be nothing at present in the situation of the markets elsewhere or in the tonnage question which should induce a change in the expected opening price here of $1 37½@1 40 per cental. We are in receipt of the following dispatch to-day

WASHINGTON, Aug 16.—The general average of the corn crop for August 1st is 98 against 100 July 1st. The condition of spring wheat is 88 against 1 last year Early months were very dry and rains came too late to restore the loss. California and Oregon report the highest condition for several years. Tobacco shows a general average for the whole country of 86.

The receipts of wool for the forty eight hours ending at noon, to-day were larger than the average of last week, embracing about 300 bales but consisting almost entirely of prior purchases The market is quiet and former quotations are continued with a tendency in favor of buyers

Provisions are in good demand for the local trade with some call for shipment, but not an extensive one The aggregate of transactions is, however not large, last quotations being firmly sustained

Dairy products of choice quality are in good demand at full rates, though eggs are weaker Other products unchanged

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

LIVER PILLS,

OR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs increases on pressure sometimes the pain is in the left side, the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax, the head is troubled with pain accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant The patient complains of weariness and debility he is easily startled his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin, his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it In fact he distrusts every remedy Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged

AGUE AND FEVER

DR C MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

The genuine are never sugar coated

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS

The genuine MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C MCLANE and FLEMING BROS on the wrappers

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS prepared by Fleming Bros of Pittsburgh Pa, the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY Nearly two thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly from some derangement of the sexual system and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Treats all Chronic and Special Diseases

YOUNG MEN

WHO MAY BE SUFFERING FROM THE effects of youthful follies or indiscretion, do well to avail themselves of this the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. DR SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure

MIDDLE AGED MEN

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear or the color will be of a thin milkish hue again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr S will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs
